

Stan Munroe

Stan is employed by the Canadian Deafblind Association (CDBA) to carry out special projects including managing the Information function for Deafblind International. Until his recent appointment as Information Officer, he was the National Executive Director. Stan was the Secretary - Coordinator for the 13th Dbl World Conference held in Mississauga, Ontario, August 2003

Stan a BA and MSc. and prior to working with CDBA, he worked as a Management Biologist for the Government of the Canadian Province of Ontario. He is a founding member of the CDBA, a former President of CDBRA and is a parent of a deafblind son.

Stan was a member of the Dbl World Council for a number of years and is now a member of the Dbl Management Committee as the Information Officer.

He is the author of A Survey of Late Emerging Manifestations of Congenital Rubella (1999) and 1Developing a National Volunteer Registry of Persons with Deafblindness in Canada (2001). Stan has presented at numerous conferences on the Canadian Rubella study. In recent years, Grupo Brasil has invited him to spread the message throughout Brazil about congenital rubella syndrome and the need for immunization.