

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It is with great pleasure that I write a letter of recommendation for Mr. Marcelo Acquaviva and the firm Acquaviva Eventos.

The International Association of Universities (IAU), with offices in Paris, France, held its General Conference in São Paulo, Brazil, in July 2004. The conference was hosted by the University of São Paulo and preparations, which spanned more than 18 months, were undertaken jointly. Most of the logistical arrangements such as participants' accommodations, transportation, food and refreshments, technical infrastructure and meeting rooms, were coordinated locally.

It is in this context that we became familiar with the work of Acquaviva Eventos and with Mr. Marcelo Acquaviva and his team. On behalf of IAU, I can only express the highest satisfaction with the work of this firm.

Mr. Acquaviva was efficient, completely reliable and found solutions to all problems as they arose. Working under stressful conditions and with conference participants from around the world, the Acquaviva Eventos team worked tirelessly to ensure that the event was successful from an organizational point of view.

I would highly recommend Mr. Acquaviva and his firm to anyone needing logistical support for the organization of an event of even the largest and most complex nature.

Sincerely yours,

Eva Egron-Polak
Secretary-General
Executive Director
International Association of Universities (IAU)
